2023 Pillars of Pride Honorees

Thank you to our sponsors!

Dr. Henry Kuharic, a Pioneering HIV physician that was at the forefront of the race to understand HIV and care for patients from the mid 1980's to early 1990's. In the mid 1980's, Dr. Kuharic made house calls to his patients in Seattle, providing support during a time when little was known about AIDS and effective treatments had not yet been developed.

Norma Timbang is a skilled facilitator and advocate. Norma has worked within healthcare, human services, and community organizing from the local to international level, with a focus on human rights, LGBTQ+, and immigrant issues.

Emil Hawk Brandon, also known as "Hawk", has been an educator, advocate, and member of the Seattle area leather community and Sex Positive Community for over a decade. He is an advocate for disability access and has given his "transgender 101" talk to a wide variety of audiences.

Dyke Community Activists is a group of lesbian social justice activists who worked together in Seattle for around 21 years, hosting numerous community events to bring lesbians together to learn about and support progressive political movements, both locally around the globe.

George Dicks has been devoted throughout his life to expanding health literacy in the African American and LGBTQIA+ communities. He currently works as lead geriatric mental health specialist at Harborview, geriatric psychiatry services.
